Second Generation Theatre to Cancel Performances of Three Tall Women

Buffalo, NY, March 13, 2020 – In light of the evolving COVID-19 situation and under the guidance of Governor Andrew Cuomo, Second Generation Theatre, currently in residence at Shea's Smith Theatre, will cancel their upcoming run and all performances of Three Tall Women in support of the health and well-being of their actors, staff and the theatregoing public.

We urge all community members to practice caution and strictly follow the CDC's guidelines for preventing the spread of disease during this time. SGT will continue to closely monitor the evolving coronavirus situation and make decisions as circumstances require, in accordance with guidelines from the CDC and state and local health officials.

Single tickets purchased for Three Tall Women will have the option to be transferred to our upcoming production of Cabaret or refunded. Tickets purchased through Ticketmaster will be contacted by the Shea's Box Office. Second Generation Theatre Season ticket holders will receive the option for a credit on their account to apply to the 2020-2021 season. If you would like to receive a refund, please contact the point of purchase, either the Shea's Box Office at 716-847-0850 or email secondgenerationtheatre@gmail.com. Please be aware we are experiencing a significant number of inquiries and we appreciate your patience. As a small not-for-profit theatre company, Second Generation Theatre also will graciously accept any ticketholder to transfer their ticket credit to a tax-deductible donation.

Please note: We will continue to update the public and our patrons about other upcoming events as more information becomes available.

Stay up to date through our website at www.secondgenerationtheatre.com and through our SGT Facebook page.
